1. Pre-military training in schools ('Przysposobienie wojskowe') is a subject given the same prominence as any other subject in the school curriculum. In every school a team (hufiec) is created with a Polish officer (reserve) as OC. At present, pre-war officers act as commanders of these teams. The OC team agrees upon the training program with the headmaster of the school.
2. Pre-military training is supervised by the District Office of the Ministry of Education ("Kuratorjum Okregu Szkolnego"). In the Krakow School District ("K.O.Szk" "Krakowski Okreg Szkolny") the official in charge of pre-military training is Scout Master 2nd Lt. Bugajski.
3. Teaching is purely theoretical; the pupils are not permitted practical training, e.g., with arms on the firing range. The program is for ten months and usually consists of the following:

Internal economy - 10 hours
Tactics - 32 hours
Weapon Training - 6 hours
Time available for other subjects 4 hours.

The higher schools have a program covering a period of ten months.

Internal economy - 10 hours
Tactics - 2 hours theory, 40 hours in the field
Weapon Training - 6 hours
Time available for other subjects 4 hours.

4. The basic directives concerning the pre-military training of youth in Poland are received by a Lt. Russel of the Youth Section ("Mlodziezowy Referat") located in the Hotel Royal in Krakow, which also houses the D.O.W.5, Krakow. The Head of the Mlodziezowy Referat is a Russian.
